HIGGLETY PIGGLETY

One person thinks of a rhyming pair of words, like Funny Bunny. Then the person gives clues that are synonyms for the two words — hilarious furry mammal. Additionally, the person clues everyone into how many syllables each word is by using the phrases “higglety pigglety” (for 3 syllable words), “higgy piggy” (for 2 syllable words), or “hig pig” (for 1 syllable words). For example, Funny Bunny is a “higgy piggy,” but Old Mold is a “hig pig.” Everyone tries to guess. Whoever gets it first thinks of the next one.
