

RECIPE FOR CONVERSATION

TALK ABOUT: YOUR THANKSGIVING STORIES

We can honor the meaning of Thanksgiving by sharing our own stories. Try these prompts:

- Talk about a time when someone in your family experienced need. How did they overcome it? How has that shaped your family's history?
- Share a story of true generosity -- a moment when you or a loved one was so moved by kindness that you'll always be grateful.
- Tell us about your most hilarious, heartwarming, or transformative holiday memory.
- Imagine a future Thanksgiving. Tell that story: How will your descendants celebrate? What stories will they tell?
